NEW IN THE LIBRARY

There are two new collections in the library that students may want to see: a new paperback collection and Editorials on File.

The new RECI paperback collection, located on the open shelves, includes about 300 popular titles on subjects of all kinds. These books may be checked out for two-week periods.

Editorials on File is an index of newspaper editorials on subjects ranging from the Boston Massacre to inflation. This series covers over 140 major newspapers representing all 50 states and provides timely information for papers as well as speeches. Editorials on File is located on the index table and may be used in the library.

EVALUATING SHELTON'S LIBRARY SERVICES

During the week of May 10-14, a questionnaire will be distributed to several classes for the purpose of evaluating the staff, resources, and services of the library.

Any student who does not have a chance to complete a questionnaire in class may pick up one at the circulation desk during this week.

The library staff is interested in knowing your complaints, criticisms, and compliments. Please feel free to participate in the evaluation; all questionnaires are confidential.

AFRO AMERICAN CULTURAL ASSOCIATION HOSTS SPEAKERS

The Afro American Cultural Association of Shelton State has invited several speakers to their meeting during the month of May. Linda Hart from the public Safety Committee of Tuscaloosa County spoke to the group last week on the importance of developing good study skills in college.

On Wednesday, May 12, James Hughes, director of the Media Center at Stillman College, will talk to the group about Black heritage. On May 19, Dr. Barbara Spencer, principal of Holt Elementary, will speak to the group.

All meetings of the Afro American Cultural Association will be held in room 62 under the direction of Bessie German and Ruby Miller.

ATTENTION FACULTY:

Each year Phi Theta Kappa has a national theme to guide individual chapters in their activities and programs. The theme for 1982-83 is "Signed by the Masters." The theme is obviously open to numerous interpretations.

Many PTK chapters have honors theme courses based on this national theme, varying in format and depth and developed to suit the needs of the individual chapter. These courses may be "team-taught" or taught by a single instructor.

If you are interested in working on a PTK honors theme course for Shelton's PTK chapter, contact Debbie Grimes. Course outlines for similar courses at Jeff State and Enterprise are available.

A REPRESENTATIVE FROM SHELTON STATE WILL BE AT HOLT HIGH SCHOOL ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, FOR THEIR HONOR'S DAY PROGRAM. ON FRIDAY, MAY 14, SHELTON STATE WILL BE AT WEST BLOCTON AND SOUTHERN ACADEMY FOR THEIR RESPECTIVE HONORS PROGRAM.

THERE'S A DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT!

Don't forget the dance scheduled this night, May 15, at the junior college. Sponsored by the Student Life Committee, the evening promises lots of fun with music by the "Emeralds." Five Bama Mino pizzas will be given away that night. So buy an advance ticket for $1 to the dance and get a chance on a free pizza.

NEWS AROUND SHELTON STATE

Kim Rust busy preparing for a week-end seminar this month in Birmingham before the Miss Alabama Pageant, June 9-12.....Hat's off to all of those who worked so hard on the faculty retreat last week. It was really a fun and enriching day. Janet Gregory, Tom Umphrey, Randy Jarrell and of course Humphrey Lee and Lorraine Lowe with the delicious lunch provided a most successful learning experience.

MUSIC NEWS

On Friday, May 14, at 10:10 a.m., the music department will feature the applied students in a short musicale. The program will consist of students studying applied piano and voice at Shelton State. Students, family, and faculty are encouraged to attend.

Shelton students Peggy Rowe, piano, and Tim Hayes, bass, will present a joint music recital on Thursday, May 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Rowe, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Rowe, is a student of Mrs. Syble Coaks. Hayes is a student of Everett McCorvey and the son of Rev. and Mrs. James C. Hayes of West Blocton.

Mark your calendars for the Shelton Singers spring concert, May 20, at 7:30 p.m. Soloists for Mozart Mass "Missa Brevis" are: Mary Fleming, soprano; Teresa Brewer, alto; Dan Stallings, tenor; and Tim Hayes, bass.

SHELTON STATE STUDENTS DAN STALLINGS AND JEFF SPARKS WILL HOLD A JOINT RECITAL ON SUNDAY, MAY 23.

The Tuscaloosa Community Players under the direction of Shelton State instructor Paul Looney will present their final production for the season, "Company." The production will be held Friday through Sunday, May 14-16, at the Bama Theater. Tickets for the production are on sale at Shelton State and the Bama box office.
